PREFACE

Pending the issuance of an authoritative General Catalogue of the collections of the Art Institute the present handbook is being reissued in two volumes, one devoted to Architecture and Sculpture, the other to Painting.

Further information regarding the objects in the collections is to be found in the Burnham and Ryerson Libraries, where books, catalogue files, analytical indices, clipping files, and collections of reproductions are available.

The greater part of the Institute's collections of architecture and sculpture is installed on the first floor and on and about the central stairway. The paintings are on the second floor.

THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The museum building, erected in 1892 from plans by Charles A. Coolidge, upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week-day from 9 to 5:30, Sundays, from 12:15 to 9:00 p. m. Admission is free to members and their families at all times and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays.

The Art School, in the same building, includes departments of Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Composition, Etching, Decorative Designing and its allied branches, Normal Instruction, and Architecture.

All friends of the Art Institute are invited to become members. Annual Members pay a fee of ten dollars a year. Sustaining Members pay twenty-five dollars or more annually. Life Members pay one hundred dollars and are thenceforth exempt from dues. Governing Members pay one hundred dollars upon election and twenty-five dollars a year thereafter. Upon the payment of four hundred dollars additional, Governing Members become Governing Life Members and are exempt from dues. All receipts from life memberships are invested and the income only expended.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts), and to the use of the Ryerson Library.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors in Gunsaulus Hall.

PAINTINGS

Paintings marked * were not on exhibition at the time this handbook was compiled.

For ready reference to any particular work, attention is directed to the Numerical Index where reference is found to artist, title of each work, and the page in the handbook on which it is described; also to the General Index where reference is found to artist, title of work, donor or fund from which purchased. The indices precede the illustrations at the end of the book.

PAINTINGS BY OLD MASTERS

THE HUTCHINSON GALLERY OF OLD MASTERS (Room 32) was named by the Trustees in honor of Charles Lawrence Hutchinson on the completion, in 1907, of his twenty-fifth year as President of the Art Institute.

Thirteen of the most important pictures in this room were purchased from the famous Demidoff Collection in Florence. In 1880, the Palace of San Donato, the Demidoff family seat in Florence, was sold by Prince Paul Demidoff. Some of the pictures now in the Art Institute are described in the San Donato Catalogue of 1880 but were withdrawn from sale by Prince Demidoff as the choicest part of the collection, while others do not appear in the catalogue and were probably never intended to be sold. Enough pictures remained after the sale of 1880 to occupy a gallery at the new Demidoff home at Pratolino and the works now exhibited remained there until they were purchased for the Art Institute, in June, 1890, from the surviving Princess Demidoff.
